From the Parish Priest

Dear Parishioner,

This week we have our envelope appeal to assist with funds to air condition Mary Immaculate Church. This project was introduced last weekend. Many parishioners are fully supportive of this initiative, others are fairly ambivalent, and some are decidedly against it. Along with the other Oratory Fathers, the Pastoral Council and Parish Finance Committee, I believe that this is a worthwhile project to make MI Church more quiet, prayerful and comfortable for everyone for decades to come. I do need to be clear that this is a parish project, to be paid for by the parish, with some additional help from parishioners. Other supporters of the Brisbane Oratory in Formation are also invited to contribute because for as long a Annerley Ekibin Parish is the home of the Brisbane Oratory in Formation (which may well be permanently), the Oratory Fathers believe this project to be of real benefit to our liturgical charism as well as for the good of others.

Please make use of the appeal envelopes in the pews and either kindly place your donation on the collection plate today, or take the envelope home and bring it back to put on the collection plate over the next two weekends. Thank you.

By the way, it may be helpful to point out that the proposed air conditioning system is designed to cool the air only up to 7 feet from floor level (as hot air rises), so it is in fact economical to run in such a high church building. The choir will have their own localised unit in the choir loft.

Sincere thanks for supporting this appeal which (to finish on a lighter note) is one of the very few ‘modern’ projects that you are ever likely to find the Oratory Fathers promoting!

You will find a copy of Archbishop Coleridge’s Lenten Message included with this week’s Newsletter. Please take it home with you after Mass to prayerfully reflect on during the week.

Finally, giving alms to the poor and needy is a key aspect of Lent. Please support Project Compassion once again this year by taking a box or set of envelopes with you after Mass.

Lent is a time of intensified spiritual warfare against the devil, sin and our own weaknesses. Having strong, authentic spiritual defences must be an integral aspect of our strategy to draw upon with the Lord’s saving grace and divine help.

Build A Spiritual Defence by Kathleen Beckman

St. Peter reminds us, “Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal which comes upon you to prove you, as though something strange were happening to you” (1 Peter 4:12-14). And “be sober and vigilant; your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion seeking someone to devour; resist him, firm in your faith knowing that your fellow believers around the world undergo the same sufferings” (1 Peter 5:6-11).

Ordinary Demonic Tactics can include the following. When there is natural cause for these, the devil may often try to exacerbate it.

- Distance: from home, family; fragmentation, isolation, loneliness, love
- Deception: reality inverted, false promises, lies
- Division: divided self, family, home, work, country, church
- Diversion: delay, distract, relativism, exacerbating addictions or infirmities
- Discouragement: acedia (Greek meaning “I don’t care”), lethargy about self, others or about the interior life, tiredness, overwhelm
- Draining spirit: drains energy from you, extreme physical fatigue without cause, leads to waste of time, less energy, less prayer and devotion
- Doubt: subtle to intense doubts about self, others or God undermining faith, hope and love

St. Paul tells us in Romans, “We are more than conquerors in Christ” (Rom 8:37). An acronym for conqueror may be helpful in recalling the weapons of engagement for the “good fight” of living the faith.

Adoration at Saint Elizabeth’s Chapel on Thursday nights has now recommenced. It is a great blessing to have all-night Exposition and Adoration at Saint Elizabeth’s each Thursday evening through the year. We aim to have two rostered adorers for each hour. This helps if someone is ill or can’t make it, or is running late, so that there is always someone there to watch with Our Lord. We currently need a second rostered adorer for each hour from 6pm to 9pm each week. If you could commit to be a rostered adorer for an hour from 6pm, 7pm or 8pm, would you please let Father Adrian know by contacting the parish office.

RCIA: RCIA and adult faith formation for anyone interested in learning more about the faith, Wednesdays from 7.00pm, parish office.

SUNDAY MASS READINGS

First Reading: Deuteronomy 26:4-10
Moses said to the people: ‘The priest shall take the pannier from your hand and lay it before the altar of the Lord your God. Then, in the sight of the Lord your God, you must make this pronouncement:

“My father was a wandering Aramaean. He went down into Egypt to find refuge there, few in numbers; but there he became a nation, great, mighty, and strong. The Egyptians ill-treated us, they gave us no peace and inflicted harsh slavery on us. But we called on the Lord, the God of our fathers. The Lord heard our voice; we saw our misery, our toil and our oppression; and the Lord brought us out of Egypt with mighty hand and outstretched arm, with great terror, and with signs and wonders. He brought us here and gave us this land, a land where milk and honey flow. Here then I bring the first-fruits of the produce of the soil that you, Lord, have given me.” You must then lay them before the Lord your God, and bow down in the sight of the Lord your God.’

The Word of the Lord
Response: Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm 90
(Said by all)
He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High and abide in the shade of the Almighty says to the Lord: 'My refuge, my stronghold, my God in whom I trust!'

Upon you no evil shall fall, no plague approach where you dwell. For you has he commanded his angels, to keep you in all your ways.

They shall bear you upon their hands lest you strike your foot against a stone. On the lion and the viper you will tread and trample the young lion and the dragon.

His love he set on me, so I will rescue him; protect him for he knows my name. When he calls I shall answer: 'I am with you.' I shall save him in distress and give him glory.

Second Reading: Romans 10:8-13
Scripture says: The word, that is the faith we proclaim, is very near to you, it is on your lips and in your heart. If your lips confess that Jesus is Lord and if you believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, then you will be saved. By believing from the heart you are made righteous; by confessing with your lips you are saved. When scripture says: those who believe in him will have no cause for shame, it makes no distinction between Jew and Greek: all belong to the same Lord who is rich enough, however many ask for his help, for everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.

The Word of the Lord
Response: Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation:
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!
No one lives on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus left the Jordan and was led by the Spirit through the wilderness, being tempted there by the devil for forty days. During that time he ate nothing and at the end he was hungry. Then the devil said to him, 'If you are the Son of God, tell this stone to turn into a loaf.' But Jesus replied, 'Scripture says: Man does not live on bread alone.'

Then leading him to a height, the devil showed him in a moment of time all the kingdoms of the world and said to him, 'I will give you all this power and the glory of these kingdoms, for it has been committed to me and I give it to anyone I choose. Worship me, then, and it shall all be yours.' But Jesus answered him, 'Scripture says: You must worship the Lord your God, and serve him alone.'

Then he led him to Jerusalem and made him stand on the parapet of the Temple. 'If you are the Son of God', he said to him 'throw yourself down from here, for scripture says: He will put his angels in charge of you to guard you, and again: They will hold you up on their hands in case you hurt your foot against a stone.' But Jesus answered him, 'It has been said: You must not put the Lord your God to the test.'

Having exhausted all these ways of tempting him, the devil left him, to return at the appointed time.

The Word of the Lord
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Memorial Acclamation: Number Three
Save us, Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

Charity is the form, mover, mother, and root of all virtues.
