Dear Parishioners,

We welcome home Br Conor Power and Br Matthew Buckley from the Toronto Oratory, and wish them a pleasant and restful time among us. Brs Tyson King and Shawn Murphy will also return in the coming weeks. On Saturday we will be celebrating our three year anniversary with a Solemn High Mass and refreshments to follow in Marymac Hall. Please come and celebrate this important milestone for our Oratorian community with us, as we give thanks to God for the blessings poured out upon us over these last three years, and pray for continued blessings in the years ahead.

A reminder that this coming Tuesday we have our second musical oratorio for the year, so that we mark the great feast of Pentecost in a particularly Oratorian way. St Philip Neri, who founded the Oratory in Rome in the 1500's, arranged concerts of sacred music to lift minds and hearts up to the things of God, and Oratories around the world continue this practice. This oratorio is put on free of charge by musicians, some of whom work professionally in Queensland and interstate. Please see the notice below for further information.

In Christ,

Fr Scot Anthony Armstrong

Pentecost Oratorio: Bach's Cantata 175 BWV Tuesday, 22nd May, 7:30pm at MI Church

In our Oratorio series, we showcase sacred music that can help all of us raise our hearts and minds to God. The Oratorio will feature an instrumental ensemble and the Brisbane Oratory Choir, directed by Mr Warwick Adeney, director of music of the Brisbane Oratory (and concertmaster of the Queensland Symphony Orchestra). Admission is free, but donations are welcome.

Please join us as we continue to say the Novena prayer daily in preparation for the feast of Saint Philip Neri on May 26th. Fr Adrian Sharp.

Prayer to St Philip Neri

O holy St Philip, patron saint of joy, you who trusted Scripture's promise that the Lord is always at hand and that we need not have anxiety about anything, in your compassion heal our worries and sorrows and lift the burdens from our hearts. We come to you as one whose heart swells with abundant love for God and all creation. Hear us, we pray, especially in this need (make your request here). Keep us safe through your loving intercession, and may the joy of the Holy Spirit which filled your heart transform our lives and bring us peace. Amen.

On the feast of St Phillip Neri, there will be a celebratory supper in the hall following Mass and assistance is needed for catering. If you can assist, please phone or message Nicole King on 0413 544 192.

Reflection

Avarice is the pest of the soul.

St Philip Neri

On gentleness and peace in dealings with others: "Your zeal was altogether good, but it had the defect of being a little harsh, a bit too urgent, a bit anxious and irritable. Now it has been purified of these things; from now on strive to be gentle, kind, gracious, peaceful and enduring." (St Francis de Sales)

From Searching For and Maintaining Peace, by Jacques Philippe (Sceptre, New York, 2002).

MASS READINGS

First Reading: Acts 2:1-11

When Pentecost day came round, the apostles had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech. Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language. They were amazed and astonished. 'Surely' they said 'all these men speaking are Galileans? How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya round Cyrene; as well as visitors from Rome - Jews and proselytes alike - Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.'

The Word of the Lord

Response: Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm 103
(Said by all)

Bless the Lord, my soul!
Lord God, how great you are,
How many are your works, O Lord!
The earth is full of your riches.

You take back your spirit, they die,
returning to the dust from which they came.
You send forth your spirit, they are created;
and you renew the face of the earth.

May the glory of the Lord last for ever!
May the Lord rejoice in his works!
May my thoughts be pleasing to him.
I find my joy in the Lord.

Second Reading: Galatians 5: 16-25

If you are guided by the Spirit you will be in no danger of yielding to self-indulgence, since self-indulgence is the opposite of the Spirit, the Spirit is totally against such a thing, and it is precisely because the two are so opposed that you do not always carry out your good intentions. If you are led by the Spirit, no law can touch you. When self-indulgence is at work the results are obvious: fornication, gross indecency and sexual irresponsibility; idolatry and sorcery; feuds and wrangling, jealousy, bad temper and quarrels; disagreements, factions, envy; drunkenness, orgies and similar things. I warn you now, as I warned you before: those who behave like this will not inherit the kingdom of God. What the Spirit brings is very different: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, trustfulness, gentleness and self-control. There can be no law against things like that, of course. You cannot belong to Christ Jesus unless you crucify all self-indulgent passions and desires. Since the Spirit is our life, let us be directed by the Spirit.

The Word of the Lord

Response: Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia! Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful; and kindle in them the fire of your love. Alleluia!

Gospel: John 15: 26-27; 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples: 'When the Advocate comes, whom I shall send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who issues from the Father, he will be my witness.

And you too will be witnesses, because you have been with me from the outset.

I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now. But when the Spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking as from himself but will say only what he has learnt; and he will tell you of the things to come.

He will glorify me, since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine.

Everything the Father has is mine; that is why I said: All he tells you will be taken from what is mine.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Memorial Acclamation: Number Three

Save us, Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and resurrection you have set us free.
